

OG'S EXCITING ADVENTURE

How to play:

This is a word replacement game that's fun to play by yourself or with others.
First, fill in these words – be as creative and silly as you like. (No peeking at story!)

Adjective _____ (describes something: Red, messy, smart)

Adjective _____

Adjective _____

Verb _____ (an action: run, jump swim)

Noun _____ (person, place or thing: truck, cat, house)

Verb _____

Adjective _____

Person's name _____ (Lily, Sam, Mrs. Smith)

Verb _____

Type of animal _____ (dog, elephant, cow)

Plural body part _____ (eyes, legs, toenails)

Exclamation _____ (Ouch! Yikes! Wow!)

Name _____ (Jack, Junior, Rocky)

Plural body part _____

Adjective _____

Verb _____

Color _____ (red, silver, purple)

Color _____

Noun _____

Exclamation _____

Noun _____

Adjective _____

Adjective _____

OG'S EXCITING ADVENTURE

Now, read the story, inserting the words you selected in order.
You should end up with a very silly story!

Once upon a time, a _____ frog named Og lived in a _____ swamp.
Adjective Adjective

He and the other frogs loved to play _____ games, like _____ the Adjective Verb
_____ on the lily pad and _____ and go seek.
Noun Verb

One day, Og and his pal, _____ _____ were having a contest to see who Adjective Person's name

could _____ the highest, when they suddenly came face to face with a snapping
Verb

_____ with enormous _____ .
Type of animal Plural body parts

" _____ !" Og said. "It's old _____ ! Hop to it!"
Exclamation Name

There no way the two frogs could jump over the creature without him snapping at their _____ , but Og had a _____ plan.
Plural body parts Adjective

"Ready, set, _____ !" Og shouted as he took a giant leap to the left, while his friend
Verb

hopped to the right. Back and forth they went, until their foe was so confused, his face turned _____ and _____ , and _____ poured out of his nose.
Color 1 Color 2 Noun

" _____ !" he screamed
Exclamation

The frogs kept hopping until they landed safely on a floating _____ , far from their Noun
enemy. "That was _____ ," Og said. "Let's do it again!"
Adjective

And so they did! It was the most _____ day Og could ever remember!
Adjective